Constitutional Amendment Passes Assembly
With Norcross In Opposition.

ANTI-STUDENT VOTING MEASURE

Heated Debate Takes Place, In Which Many Personalities
Are Used By The Speakers For Both Sides.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., June 4.—The assembly today adopted the Roothe constitutional amendment resolution to limit the length of legislative sessions to 100 days. He presented statistics showing that most states limited the length of time of the legislature to May first.

Assemblyman Norcross of Janesville opposed the measure, arguing that longer sessions would allow the members to go home and consult with their people, which was wholesome. The vote was 37 to 26.

The public utilities regulation bill was made a special order for Wednesday morning.

Another heated debate took place in the assembly on the motion to reconsider the passage of the anti-student voting bill. Assemblyman Bancroft, the author of the bill, read a letter threatening him with being thrown into Lake Mendota if he persisted in his course.

Mr. Bancroft also denounced Assemblyman J. P. Baker, who had voted in the Madison municipal election even after he was a student at the university, and had been elected as assemblyman from Jackson county. The bill was victorious by a vote of 42 to 25.

The senate concurred in the $30,000 Platteville mining school bill and the $200,000 La Crosse Normal school bill.

HAYWOOD TRIAL IS BEGUN BY ATTORNEYS FOR IDAHO

Complete Jury Secured--Haywood Is In Court
But Says He Is Entirely Well
Again.

(By Associated Press.)

Boise, Idaho, June 4.—As soon as the court opened in the Haywood trial today James H. Hawley, leading counsel for the prosecution, began his opening address to the jury. Haywood was present looking a trifle pale, but said he was quite well again. Hawley said they expected to prove the officers of the executive committee of the Western Federation of Miners were responsible not only for the death of the late Governor Steunenberg but scores of others besides. While Haywood, Pettibone and Moyer are specifically charged in the indictment, with having thrown or exploded the bomb, it is not the purpose of the prosecution to prove they were even in Idaho at the time of the crime. Under the laws of the state the accessories before the fact must be charged with crime as principals. "It is our purpose," Hawley said, "to show the death of Steunenberg was the result of a conspiracy, an understanding and collusion between leaders of the Western Federation of Miners and others. We claim the leaders of this union are responsible for this outrage and it will be our purpose to prove them so." Hawley said they would prove the federation "left a trail of blood, traded in blood, hired paid assassins, collected huge sums of money which they squandered to carry out the objects of a few men of the 'inner circle.'" Hawley said he would prove the "inner circle" of the Western Federation of Miners were responsible for the death of Arthur Collins of Telluride and many other people in Colorado and elsewhere. Hawley charged the blowing up of the Independence depot, causing the death of fourteen people to the direct instigation of Haywood. Hawley concluded his address at 11:06. Mr. Darrow announced the defense would reserve its opening statement until the state's case was closed. C. F. Wayne was the first witness called.

C. F. Wayne was first called to the stand. Wayne was examined by Senator Borah. He was an eye-witness to the murder of Steunenberg. The defense declined to cross-examine Wayne, and the second witness, Dr. Gue, who attended Steunenberg on the night of the murder, was called. Dr. Gue was not cross-examined by the defense. C. Rice of Caldwell, an attorney, was next called. Rice testified to the presence of Thomas Hogan, alias Orchard, at Caldwell prior to the Steunenberg murder. Richardson was cross-examined by Rice. N. Ellis, a Caldwell merchant, further testified to the presence of Orchard near the Steunenberg residence. Ellis was cross-examined by Richardson. A. J. Ballentine was called next and then the court took a recess.

The jury were all in their places, have been sworn and bound by oath to honestly deal justice between state and prisoner. Haywood has heard the indictment charging him with the crime that he murdered Governor Frank Steunenberg and today after the state has recited its case and made promise of proof the first chapter of the tale of the Caldwell crime will be retold.

EDNA MAY PLAYS RETURN ENGAGEMENT AT ALTAR

Wedded Today In London To Oscar Lewisohn;
New York Clubman, Man-About-
Town And Horse Racer.

New York, June 4.—Word comes from London that the wedding of Edna May and Oscar Lewisohn took place in that city today. Gossip has coupled the names of the popular young actress and the wealthy young New Yorker for more than a year, but it was only a little more than a month ago that their engagement was formally announced. Three weeks ago Miss May made farewell to the stage in order to prepare for her approaching wedding.

No stage celebrity of recent years has had a more romantic career than Edna May. Born in humble circumstances, unrecognized among the members of the chorus when she first essayed the stage as a career, taking London suddenly by storm after New York had failed to see anything out of the usual rut in her performance of a minor part, and now the chosen bride of the owner of millions, after divorcing a former husband who was a famous bicycle rider—that is the history of Edna May's life in one sentence.

Miss May's name when she was a demure and unknown little chorus girl in New York was Edna May Petty. She was born in Syracuse, N. Y., where her father was a letter carrier. When she first went on the stage she was glad to get a salary of $12 a week. A few years later she signed contracts for $500 and $1000 a week, and had scores of suitors from rajahs of India to heirs of British dukedoms, from the chappies of Piccadilly to bank clerks of Threadneedle street. At least one man has committed suicide because of her, and she has had a house in Regent street, a villa in St. John's Wood, and an estate in Scotland.

Fred Titus was the little chorus girl's first adventure. He was a famous bicycle rider in those days, and when she met him he had just won the hour record at the Springfield meet. They were married in 1895 and lived in a little flat in Harlem. Titus opened a bicycle shop and Edna went to music and dancing lessons. She was a singer, and from singing in

GENERAL RUGER'S
CAREER IS ENDED

ILLUSTRIOUS SOLDIER SUCCUMB-ED TO HEART DISEASE.

AT STAMFORD YESTERDAY

Was in Active Service Over Forty Years and Rose to Second Highest Command in U. S. Army.

Word reached Janesville at a late hour yesterday afternoon of the sudden death at Stamford, Connecticut,
 of Major General Thomas H. Ruger, U. S. A., retired. Heart disease was the cause of his demise.

Gen. Ruger had a long and brilliant service in the army. He was born in New York state on April 2, 1833.

 At the age of 17 he entered the military academy at West Point, graduating from that institution in 1854 and accepting an assignment to the engineer corps with the brevet rank of 2d lieutenant. After a year's service, during which time his corps was engaged in building fortifications along the Mississippi near New Orleans and in other similar work, he resigned and took up his residence in Janesville.

Civilian life was not to be his destiny. Six years after he had engaged in the study and practice of law in this city the Civil War broke out. He was made Lieutenant Colonel of the 3d Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, on the 26th of June, 1861, and Colonel on Sept. 1 of the same year. On the 20th of November, 1862, he was promoted to Brigadier General and accepted his commission on the 24th.
 He was in the campaign of the Rappahannock and the brevet rank of Brigadier General was conferred on him for gallant and meritorious services while commanding a division in the Gettysburg movement and battle.
 During the draft riots in July, 1863,
 he was in command at New York city.
 On the 30th of November, 1864, he was promoted Major General of the Volunteers for gallant and meritorious
 services in the battle of Franklin, Tenn.

Honorably mustered out of the volunteer service on Sept. 1, 1866, he accepted an appointment as Colonel of the 3d Infantry in the regular army service on Sept. 4 of the same year,
 and was military governor in Georgia in 1868 during the reconstruction period. On the 15th of March, 1869, he was transferred to the 15th Infantry.
 From 1871 to 1875 he was superintendent at the West Point academy and after that served two years as commander of the Department of the South. He was made Brigadier General March 19, 1886, and accepted his commission on the 19th of April of the same year. On Feb. 18, 1895, he was made Major General and commanded the Department of the East including seventeen states and the District of Columbia, ranking second only to Major General Nelson A.
 Miles. His retirement from active service took place in 1897.
 He is survived by a wife and two daughters residing in Stamford;
 two brothers—William and Edward Ruger
 and two sisters—Mrs. C. M. R.
 Pense and Miss Augusta Ruger—residing in Janesville. The funeral services will be held in Stamford and burial will be in the military cemetery at West Point.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.
 Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local.
 Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.
 The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr.
 Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the root of all evils,
 all tissue, and all blood ailments.
 "The Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, enters nervous exhausts, gives renewed vigor and amply builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative, Tablets or Liquid—see general tonic
 to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Ear corn is a problem. Farmers who have a good supply of ear corn
 can get a good price for their product.
 While the prices quoted are $14 to $15, even higher has been offered.
 Harley jumped up five cents but oats remained stationary. Standard middlings went up a dollar and hay fifty cents, selling now at $15. Potatoes also went up five cents but butter and eggs remained the same. Reports from throughout the state show that the general impression is that the crops, particularly corn, will be ruined despite the wet weather. Prof. R. A.
 Moore of the State Agricultural College is a firm believer that the present
 summer will see good crops. He says:

"The corn is coming to the front
 all right. Of course it is going in late,
 but with a good summer and a good fall it should be all right. Most of it is now planted. It has been cold but the corn has not received a very serious setback; I do not think much of the seed has rotted. Some of it may have in the heavy clay soils, but I think very little of it has in clay loam or prairie soil. We hear some complaints, however.

"Yes, we look for an increase in acreage in the state this year, perhaps as much as 10 per cent. The farmers are coming to use better varieties of corn, too, and so are getting better results. Many are coming to use the Wisconsin standard kinds that have been tried and developed at this college."

Secretary True's farm crop report for June 1 says: "Cold weather has continued throughout the entire month of May, no week during this time passing without frost. Vegetation has advanced slowly, but has not suffered severely from freezing, seeming, under adverse circumstances, to have gained an unusual degree of hardiness."
 "As far as we can determine, the damage done to fruits is confined to early varieties of apples and plums.
 Other fruits, at date, are in full bloom, with a fair prospect of an average yield."

"The season is fully two weeks later than that of last year. Spring sown grains are low and where sowed early the stand is slightly thin, but since the rains of about the middle of the month they have made satisfactory growth. Early sown grain is not as good as that planted as late as the middle of May."

" Meadows and pastures have improved under conditions anticipated
 the first of the month, and farm stock is now generally living from the pastures."

"Not to exceed 70 per cent of the corn acreage of the state has been planted, much ground being hardly in condition for planting. Undoubtedly there will be considerable loss of planting that was done previous to the heavy rains, as on heavy soils the ground is so packed as to interfere with the growth of the plant."

"Tobacco plants are small, and the planting of this crop will also be delayed."

"The general crop outlook at date
 is by no means gloomy. June, July, and August almost invariably determine the character of Wisconsin harvests. So now favorable weather during these months may cause us to forget the unsatisfactory conditions of May."

Our reports from correspondents
 throughout the state give the following percentage of conditions, 100 representing a high average:
 Winter wheat 50 Spring wheat... 52
 Winter rye... 90 Meadows... 85
 Oats... 50 Pastures... 84

ILL LUCK PURSUES
CLINTON AUTOIST

Machine Frightened Horse and Young Lady Driving Was Thrown From Rig and Badly Injured.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Clinton, Wis., June 3.—C. P. Drake
 certainly has been unfortunate in regard to accidents with his automobile. Yesterday afternoon while almost a mile and a half west of town on the Milwaukee road, he met Miss Minnie Keopke in a buggy. The horse took fright at the approaching auto and turned suddenly and threw the young lady out of the buggy,
 breaking her left leg in two places.
 Mr. Drake stopped and took the unfortunate young lady to her home a short distance away in the auto. This is the second serious accident Mr.
 Drake has had. He has a damage suit pending against him now for a large amount for damage caused to a young boy near Whitewater last fall. The supreme court recently handed down a decision against Mr. Drake in a suit growing out of the Whitewater accident. No blame, however, is attached to Mr. Drake for yesterday's accident.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS'
PICNIC IN DOORS

Janesville, Brooklyn, Brodhead and Albany Represented at Celebration in Evansville.

Evansville, June 3.—A large crowd was in attendance at the Southern Wisconsin Royal Neighbors' picnic in this city last Saturday. Arrangements had been made to have the gathering in the city park, but the weather being unfavorable it was thought best to assemble in the K.
 P. hall. There were many societies present from neighboring towns, including Brooklyn, Albany, Brodhead and Janesville. Following the basket dinner at noon a very interesting program was given and choice music was afforded by the Evansville band during the afternoon. It was decided to hold the annual picnic at Brooklyn
 next year, and the association officers were elected from that place, as follows: Mrs. Cramer, Pres.; Mrs. Carrie Baldwin, Sec.; and Mrs. Yar-wood, Treas.

In the K. P. hall last Friday evening the graduating class of the high school enjoyed an elaborate banquet given by the Juniors. At eight o'clock a five-course supper was served, the tables being handsomely decorated with carnations, violets and smilax.
 Spencer Pullen acted as toastmaster
 and Lester Bullard delivered the Senior address which was responded to by Amy Richardson of the Junior class. During supper and throughout the evening excellent music was furnished by the orchestra. Various games were indulged in, and the latter part of the evening was given to dancing. All report a very enjoyable time.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Evans pleasantly entertained the Junior and Senior classes of the seminary at their home last Friday evening. Several hours were spent with a variety of games
 after which a dainty supper was served.
 All enjoyed a delightful time.

A goodly number from here went to Madison Friday to witness the Wisconsin-Syracuse boat races on Lake Mendota.

CHRISTMAN HAD BAD
RECORD IN CLINTON

Bogus Spouse of Mary Prye is Alleged to Have Been Cause of Girl's Suicide.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
 Clinton, Wis., June 3.—D. W. Christ-man, who was arrested in a Dausenman hotel with a young girl of sixteen, according to which was published in The Gazette, is an old resident of Clinton and it is not his first experience of that character. While here it is alleged he lived with a young woman whom he claimed as his wife,
 but who became disgusted with her life and committed suicide by shooting herself. Then it became known that she and Christman were never married. The girl's mother and brothers came to claim the body and the feeling was so bitter against Christ-man that he disappeared and kept away from here for a long time.

A picked-up ball team from Clinton played the Y. M. C. A. team of Beloit at Beloit Saturday afternoon and our boys got trounced badly.

O. B. Rogers has sold the Hotel
 Clinton to Mr. Amos of Elkhorn, and Clinton will once more have her best and largest hotel open to the public.
 Mr. Amos is a single man and intends to run the bar only himself and rent
 the hotel proper to another party. It is expected that mine host Larson
 of the Park hotel will take charge and will open the place ready for business in time for the Home Coming July 4, 5, and 6, at which time Clinton expects the largest crowds of her history and is making ample provisions to accommodate all who come.

Every day there are men here seeking space on our streets and vacant lots for concessions, for our great Home Coming July 4, 5, and 6. Many good deals have been made, but the committee has a few more to sell and some that are very desirable and valuable. We expect 10,000 visitors during the three days. Money in plenty is flowing into the finance committee box and weather only can prevent a great success.

Mt. Clemens, The Mineral Bath
City,

is reached without change of cars only by the Grand Trunk Railway System.
 Time-tables and a beautiful descriptive pamphlet will be mailed free on application to Geo. W. Vaux, A. G. P.
 & T. A., 135 Adams St., Chicago.

 from the Evansville seminary this week.

A small party consisting of the Misses Helen Popple, Lucella Hawk,
 and Ruby Bennett, and Messrs. Lynn Cory, Francis Bemis and Clifford Owen, and Mrs. and Mrs. Trevorrah spent Sunday at a park up the river from Brodhead.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church will meet Thursday with Mrs. Chas. Curry.

Mrs. G. D. Silverthorn is on the joyed by all.

 daughter Nellie in Chicago.

 Saturday to attend the commencement of the P. & S. college. Her brother Lynn will teach for her until her return.

Miss Helen Popple and Mrs. Frank

 latter's house, in the shape of a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Avis Cove.

READ ANNOUNCEMENT BELOW

It is claimed by many that no city of its size has more churches, lodges and societies than has Janesville.

The past year has been one in which the different organizations have done much good and the members have cause to felicitate themselves on the achievements and progress made, and while congratulations are in order, it is well not to forget those men and women who have made possible the success and good which have obtained.

For the growth and prosperity which have attended the different orders, all of the members are entitled to a share of the credit. The loyalty of the rank and file of those enlisted in the cause of the different societies and lodges has never been questioned, but after all has been said and done it will not be denied that the work of extending the principles for which all are contending and of furthering at all times the best interests of the organizations have developed upon the fact.

This is true of societies everywhere. It has been true of every movement designed for the betterment of humanity since time began, and no doubt the handful of workers who continue to do the work that the many be benefited until the end of time.

These men and women, few in number, in every community, have given of their time ungrudgingly and willingly that their favorite order might live and prosper. With them it has been a labor of love with no thought of reward other than the consciousness of duty well performed.

But while their services have been rendered thus unselfishly, it does not follow that they should go entirely unrewarded. Votes of thanks are good in their way, but the Gazette believes in something more substantial, and takes this method of rewarding the various society members of this city and community.

The Gazette advocates the things which it believes are good for the people of Janesville and vicinity, and judging from the support it is receiving, its efforts are being appreciated.

In order to increase its list, as well as to afford a reward for faithful effort on the part of the church, lodge, and society workers, the Daily Gazette is impelled to offer many valuable prizes to be voted to the ladies and gentlemen who, in the opinion of the people of the city and vicinity, are most entitled to the honor and tokens of esteem and who receive the largest number of votes in the various districts.

It is the desire of the Daily Gazette that every subscriber, and in fact every one, should have a voice in awarding the trophies, and the only regret is that a similar offer cannot be made for every one deserving of such a testimonial.

The rules governing the balloting have been made as clear as possible, to permit of absolute justice and impartiality to all. The simple clipping of the ballot published herewith and filling in the names of those counted deserving of the honor will serve to place them in nomination when the ballot is received at this office, and surely there is some one whom you know that deserves this slight token at your hands. The thing to do is to clip the ballot today, fill in the name and address and send it to the Janesville Gazette office.

Everything is in readiness to receive and register them and the coupons will be published in each issue of the Daily Gazette, beginning today, and the votes announced daily, beginning next Saturday.

This paper would suggest that the different lodges and societies take up the matter officially and nominate candidates who will be the unanimous choice of their organizations.

Any person desiring any additional information regarding the contest, will please call on or telephone the contest manager at this office, who will be pleased to render any assistance to those interested.

Candidates compete only with those residing in their own district, but are privileged to secure support and work for votes in any district.

District No. 1—Includes all territory lying within the corporate limits of the city of Janesville.

District No. 2—Includes all territory lying outside the city of Janesville in the north half of Rock county.

District No. 3—Includes all territory lying outside the city of Janesville in the south half of Rock county.

WHERE THE PRIZES WILL GO.

In District No. 1—One handsome diamond ring to the lady receiving the highest vote and a fine solid gold watch to the lady receiving the second highest vote. One handsome diamond ring to the gentleman receiving the highest vote, and a fine solid gold watch to the gentleman receiving the second highest vote.

In District No. 2—One beautiful diamond as a first prize, mounted either in a ladies or gentleman's ring and a valuable solid gold watch, (ladies or gentlemen's) as a second prize, to the lady or gentleman receiving the first and second highest vote respectively.

In District No. 3—Same as given in district No. 2.

The Grand Prize. To the winner of a first prize receiving the highest vote in the entire contest, will be awarded a trip for self and one companion, expenses paid, by rail to Green Bay and from there by boat to the Soo and return.

Candidates in District No. 1 must be members of a church, lodge, club, labor, literary or social organization holding meetings in the city of Janesville.

Candidates in Districts No. 2 and 3 are not required to belong to any organization, may be of either sex, but must be at least 16 years old.

The voting will be by ballots clipped from the Daily Gazette and by voting certificates issued with subscriptions for the Daily Gazette.

Each nomination ballot clipped from the paper will count five votes for the lady or gentleman named thereon when received at the office before the date of expiration given on the ballot.

Certificates for either a lady or gentleman contestant will be issued with receipts for subscriptions as follows:

RAPID RISE

Dispatches from the east announce today George G. Thorp, a Madison boy and a graduate of the engineering department of the state university, is being seriously considered as a possible successor to W. E. Corey, president of the Steel Trust. Mr. Thorp has risen to this position within the past sixteen years. He graduated from the University with the class of 1891 and those who have watched his rapid rise in his chosen profession point with pride to the training he received at the state university. His first important position was given him in 1895 when he was made general superintendent of the Illinois Steel company. In 1900 he was transferred to the Clinton company in the same capacity and is now second vice president of the Illinois Steel company and first vice president of the Gary Construction company that is building the town of Gary and its immense mills. Mr. Thorp is a Wisconsin product and everyone in the state are proud of his position and the honors conferred upon him.

JANESVILLE GROWING

Perhaps the citizens of Janesville do not realize that Janesville is growing. The increase in population may not be so rapid that it is alarming to the staid old residents who want the town to stand still, but it is steadily growing. It is learned on good authority that when the North-Western yards are completed there will be between three and four hundred employees with headquarters here and this means an enormous influx in population. It is time for Janesville to sit up and notice matters, repair its old walks and fix up its streets. The boom is coming despite all that can be done to stop it and what Janesville wants is to be ready for it.

DOG TAX

The city marshal has given notice to public sentiment by declaring that fifteen hundred worthless curs in the city should be removed. Mr. Appleby has reached the conclusion that a dog tax rigidly enforced by a good reliable dog-catcher would be a great thing for the city. In this he voices the sentiment of owners of good dogs and persons who own none. Janesville is overriden with dogs, many of them worthless, many vicious and all generally useless because of the numbers. A good ordinance carefully drawn and then strictly enforced would mean much for the city and steps in this direction should be taken at once.

THE REVIVAL

It is pleasing to note that the calls for attendance to the revival meetings now in progress at the West Side Theatre have met with such a hearty response from the citizens generally. Everyone is talking about the meetings already and the attendance should be larger each day. It is a good thing and should be encouraged by all who believe in Christianity in its broadest type.

The whipping post is suggested as a punishment for the traffic in the "White Slaves" of Chicago. Whipping is too good for them. They should be branded with a mark that will not come off or can not be concealed.

Dog fights on the public streets will do for small country villages, but in a city vicious dogs, especially bulldogs, should be kept off the main streets when they are a menace to public safety.

Milwaukee talks of having a boycott on beer. If it was any other city it would not be half so funny, but if they do not drink beer what are they going to drink in Milwaukee—Highballs?

Roller-skating is a fad in the cities. It will never be popular in Janesville, as the walks are too bad and in some places hardly safe for pedestrians.

The jury in the Haywood case has been completed. Now the world can sit down to listen to a long tedious trial which will doubtless end in a disagreement.

Richard Croker is going to try and break into the English parliament. If he tries the Tammany methods he will start something he can not finish.

Japan is alarmed over the increase in state rights. Well, perhaps they have reason to, but no one else seems to worry greatly.

Now the pruning knives are to be used to cut out the objectionable parts of the blood-curdling drama.

Senator Lodge looks as though he is getting in line to be "Next Friend" to the coming president.

Harriman may discover that Bonaparte is not sleeping half as much as he is reported to be.

Those Goulds appear to be an unfortunate family after all. Wealth has its curses.

San Francisco means to make a good job of reform this summer if it does nothing else.

The good old summer time can not come a bit too soon to suit the average person.

So Texas has wakened to its power. Alas, poor oil trust.

ROPE AND METAL SNAP JERKED THROUGH HAND

Albert Higgins of the Town of Harmony had Finger Lacerated and Broken in a Peculiar Manner. Albert Higgins was injured in a peculiar manner while driving a hog in the town of Harmony yesterday. There was a rope tied to one of the hind legs of the porker and the free end which terminated in a metal snap he was holding in his right hand. While proceeding in this fashion he slipped and fell and the snap jerked through his hand caught the ring finger, tore open an ugly wound, and broke the bone. Dr. E. P. Woods was summoned and dressed the injured member.

COLLEGIANS BREAK RECORDS.

Brilliant Feats at Many Dual Meets. Dray, Yale Pole Vault.

W. R. Dray, Yale's best pole vaulter, broke the world's pole vault record in the recent Yale-Harvard dual meet at New Haven, Conn., by vaulting the bar at 12 feet 5 1/2 inches. The trial was made after the other candidates in the event had been disposed of and Dray being the winner in competition with a vault of twelve feet, which record was six inches over the dual meet record.

Dray then tried the bar at 12 feet 6 and vaulted it easily, the actual measurement by the officials showing 12 feet 5 1/2 inches.

The world's record was 12 feet 4 1/2 inches, held by Leroy Samse, a westerner.

As Harvard won the meet with 55 1/2 points to Yale's 48 1/2 points, the colleges are now tied with four victories each in the competition for the dual meet cup.

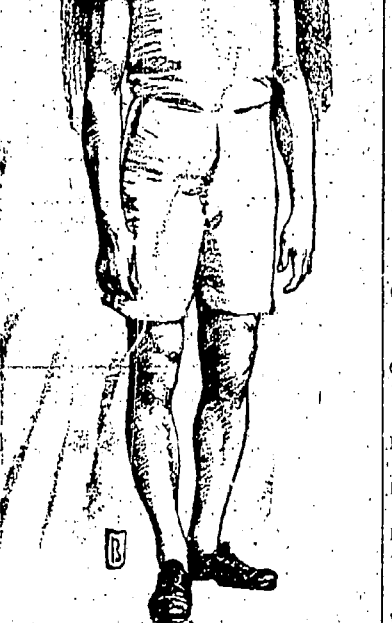

Dray is looked on as one who will set pole vault records at notches that will stand many years unbeaten. He has mastered every branch of the difficult game, and he makes his great vaults in the cleverest, fairest possible manner. There is not the slightest suspicion of his "climbing" on the pole as he vaults.

Dray's vault in the Yale-Harvard dual meet may not be accepted by the authorities as official because it was not done in competition, but he says this makes no difference to him, as he can repeat the performance any time.

The middle states interscholastic championship track meet on Franklin field, Philadelphia, was won by Mercersburg (Pa.) academy. Hill school of Pottstown, Pa., was second and the Philadelphia High school third.

One world's record and one American interscholastic record were broken, and two American interscholastic records were equaled.

Lee Talbot, the young giant of Mercersburg, who has broken many records this year, threw the twelve-pound hammer 205 feet 10 1/2 inches, breaking the former world's record of over 100 feet.

W. R. DRAY, YALE'S RECORD BREAKING POLE VAULTER.

feet, held by himself. Paul of Mercersburg made a new American interscholastic record by running a mile in 4 m. 32.3-5/8.

Princeton recently defeated Columbia in a dual track meet at Princeton by a score of 58 points to 34. Columbia won first place in but two events, the half mile and high jump. In every running event Princeton made good time. Rulon Miller of Princeton won the 100 yard dash in 10 seconds.

On the same day Northwestern university swamped the University of Indiana in a dual track meet at Evansville, Ind., by the score of 88 to 24. In nine events the Indians failed to win a point, Northwestern getting first and second places in both dashes, both hurdles, the quarter mile, the two mile, the pole vault, the shot put and the hammer throw.

In a dual meet in which each team was limited to two men in each event, and in which all four places counted, Michigan defeated Ohio State recently at Ann Arbor, Mich., by a score of 104 1/2 to 57 1/2. French broke the Michigan record in the broad jump with a leap of 23 feet 2 inches, and Garrels broke the 220 hurdle record at Michigan by taking the barriers at 24.3 seconds. The hammer throw was the only event in which Ohio won first place.

MARITIME STRIKE ENDED

FRENCH SEAMEN GIVE UP AND WILL RESUME WORK.

Minister of Marine Refuses to Accede to Demands, But Says Men Won't Be Punished.

Paris, June 4.—The extended strike of the seamen has virtually come to an end with the capitulation of the strikers, who are expected to resume work at the home and colonial ports Tuesday.

Capt. Lapeyre, one of the strikers' delegates, conveyed this information to Minister of Marine Thompson at a late hour Monday evening. He informed M. Thompson that the strike committee, assembled in Paris, had telegraphed the following message to all ports:

"The delegates have been in conference with the minister of marine and the naval committee of the chamber of deputies. The minister has abandoned the prosecution of deserters, and he has requested the navigation companies to reinstate all officers and men. The members of the naval committee assured the delegates that M. Thompson's proposition in the matter of pensions would be improved. The delegates therefore unanimously propose that the strike cease."

In the course of his conference with the strikers' delegates M. Thompson declared it was impossible to accede to their demands. He said, however, that any proposition would be considered if the strikers returned to duty immediately, in which case no punishment would be meted out and the ship owners would be requested to retain both officers and men in their former positions.

Boston Teamsters Are Riotous. Boston, June 4.—After a period of comparative quiet in the teamsters' strike, which has been in force for about two months in this city, a series of riots occurred in South Boston Monday evening, several persons being hurt.

Murdered by the "Black Hand." Philadelphia, June 4.—An unknown man whom the police are certain is a victim of the mysterious "Black Hand" society, was found murdered Monday near the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad in Mount Airy, a suburb.

John A. Kasson Badly Hurt. Washington, June 4.—John A. Kasson, of Iowa, famous as a diplomat and lawyer, fell here Monday night and fractured his arm, and after being carried to his home was reported in a serious condition. He is 55 years old.

Tries Murder and Suicide. St. Louis, June 4.—During a quarrel Barney Schmitt, gatekeeper for the St. Louis Malleable Casting company, Monday shot Charles Powell, the foreman, and then shot himself through the head. Physicians say Schmitt cannot recover, but Powell is not mortally wounded.

Snow at Newport, R. I. Newport, R. I., June 4.—A slight snow fall occurred here late Monday. The flurry was followed by a cold rain.

GOOD ROADS ARE MOST ESSENTIAL

HON. S. C. CARR ADDRESSED MILTON JUNCTION ADVANCEMENT CLUB.

A VERY INTERESTING TALK

Speaker Thoroughly Understands His Subject and Gives Many Bits of Advice.

Hon. S. C. Cobb of Milton Junction last evening gave the following paper on Good Roads before the Milton Junction Advancement Club, which is full of interest to those who seek to better the conditions of the roadways of Rock county. Mr. Carr said:

My subject is Good Roads and will commence by giving a short description of the oldest and best road in Europe. When Appianus Claudius started out to build the now famous Appian Way he did not wait for carriage builders, bicycle clubs and farmers' conventions to pass resolutions on the subject. He simply put men to work and constructed a road three hundred and thirty miles in length, by sixteen feet wide from Rome south through Capua to Brindisi and, although 2218 years have passed since then, the Appian Way is still the best country road in all Europe.

When Napoleon determined that France should have the best highways on earth, for the rapid movement of troops and the ready supply of armies with provisions, he did not pause for the adoption of a constitutional amendment, but at once took his men out and built the roads, and they are today in as nearly a perfect condition as when constructed. This dictatorial way of doing things is neither possible or advisable in a republican country, but we cite this bit of history for the several lessons it teaches. First, that if we ever expect better roads we shall have to build them; second, that one man at the head is better than a thousand, and last, but by no means least, that roads thoroughly built will be as lasting as time itself. I have ridden several miles over the Appian Way, going out the St. Paul Gate at Rome, and consider it the best road I ever went over. I have also been over Napoleon's roads in France and wished we had as good roads in this country. Several of the eastern states have taken up good road building and appropriated money for that purpose. The first I will mention is New Hampshire. A letter from the governor of that state says the sum of $125,000 is appropriated annually for the purpose of permanent improvement of highways. Each town receiving state aid must raise by tax a certain per cent according to valuation of their property. The state engineer surveys all highways receiving state aid. One of the state officers of Massachusetts has sent me the appropriation of that state which is $450,000 annually, and now have 655 miles of completed state highway. Connecticut raises by tax $250,000 annually. Towns pay one-third of the expense of building the road and are surveyed by state engineers.

New Jersey has more miles of good roads than any state in the Union. By state aid. The state appropriates $250,000 each year, and any county desiring state aid must guarantee to assume two-thirds of the cost of the improvement, the state paying the balance. Most of the main roads improved use the macadam system and cost from five to eight thousand dollars per mile.

New York state has voted $50,000,000 for good roads.

The Federation of Women's Clubs of Kane county, Illinois, are building twenty-five miles of good road by selling silver spoons with the picture of Indian Chief Shabbona in bowl, and is one of his old trails and called the Fox River Road. The National Grange, composed of a million members, have been petitioning congress ten years for aid in building good roads. Last fall at the annual meeting in Denver they passed a resolution unanimously asking congress to give $50,000,000 in five annual installments, $10,000,000 each year, to co-operate with the states in building good roads. Why not ask for this amount? Large sums are spent to improve rivers and harbors and the investment in public buildings is enormous, and the beneficent purpose will not reach its full fruition until the nation joins with the states and localities in the improvement of that which interests and affects all the people.

The macadam and Telford systems of road building are used in the states I have mentioned the macadam taking the preference. The commission of Massachusetts has reports from different sources, confirming the statements of the destructiveness of automobiles and the roads of England, France, and other countries of Europe are also showing signs of destruction by the same agency. It is estimated that $50,000 will be needed to repair damages made by automobiles in one year in Massachusetts alone. In their speed they throw all the fine particles out of the road. In New Jersey the farmers and fruit growers living beside the highways are about bruizing action against the automobiles for damaging their fruit and grass by dust. We think the automobiles and motor cycles should have tracks of their own and not frighten our horses so that women are not safe to drive the road. The condition of our roads is not in keeping with the other means of travel and we should with increasing insistence demand the prompt inauguration of a policy which will end this humiliating condition, and make our public highways the best in the world.

The trouble with the gravel roads in Milton is that it is not thick enough and too many large stones with it, and it should be screened so no stone larger than one inch in diameter should be allowed on the road, and further, no ploughing or scraping on the highways should be done after September first in this climate, unless in case of emergency.

I want to recommend the macadam system of building roads and if we could build but one mile a year, let us have the best and make a beginning. What would you think of co-operating with the village of Milton and build a macadam road from the North-Western tracks at Milton Junction over Madison Ave., to the Public Square in Milton, and make a road that the people in Janesville, Edgerton, Fort Atkinson and Whitewater, when out for a drive would come to our beautiful town to drive over a road that would be equal to the Appian Way. Oh, for a Claudius Appianus or a Napoleon to rise up in Wisconsin and build us "good roads."

Large Audience Is Expected to Listen to the Music and Speakers on Program.

The doors of the rink swing open again tonight. Monday is rest day with the revivalists. On the other days of the week they conduct meetings. All his associates show his enthusiasm and tireless labor with the co-operation of the church folk much will be done. The evangelists come to our city at the urgent invitation of the churches, Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational. This evening Mr. P. Tillon, who made so favorable an impression Sunday evening, will again address the crowd and Mr. De Loss Smith, acknowledged one of the finest evangelists in the country, will sing. It is the musical leader's purpose to crowd the platform with a great chorus. The meeting will begin at seven-thirty.

DESERTED PASTURE FOR SUPPOSED FIRE

"Old Doc" Came to Town at a Merry Clip Yesterday Noon with Broken Tether-Rope Trailing Behind.

True stories of animal life are often stranger than fiction and Chief Klein and the firemen invite the closest scrutiny on the part of President Roosevelt of the account hereafter given of the remarkable performance of "Old Doc". That this sagacious horse has a deeper sense of the sanctity of duty than most men has long been claimed by those who know him. For some time he had been variously employed in pulling the Chief's buggy or as "extra" on the other vehicles. Having become somewhat lame it was decided yesterday to give him a well-earned vacation of several months. Accordingly, after his shoes had been removed, he was tethered out on the green grass near the Spring Brook station. "Old Doc" and the green sward had been as strangers to one another ever since he was a colt and it may be imagined that he rolled and frisked and rolled again in high pressure exhilaration over the unwonted privileges extended.

But at no time it appears, did the faithful old horse entirely give himself over to the lure of unloyal enjoyment and oblivion or close his ears to the sudden call which might summon him from his pastures green. He was taking another quiet roll when the twinge of a "flesh" was on his feet and in another instant he had broken the tether-ropes and was speeding for the West Side station a mile away.

Pedestrians ran out and tried to head him off or stop him all along the way but "Old Doc" with an eye single to duty, gave them no heed and only increased his pace. He was not halted until he reached King's pharmacy and it is estimated that he covered the course in at most three minutes.

DELIGHTFUL CONCERT GIVEN LAST NIGHT

Altar Guild of Christ Church Patrons at Charming Evening Entertainment.

Those who were fortunate enough to attend the entertainment at Christ Church Parish-house last evening enjoyed a most delightful evening. Miss Amy Woodruff gave a series of charming recitals, Miss Bess Beatrice Birch delightful musical numbers, and Miss Pearl Peters a piano solo of considerable merit. Miss Woodruff displayed considerable ability in her rendition of a scene from Clyde Fitch's play of Barbara Fritchie and her recital of "The Revolt of the Mothers" from Mary Wilkins Freeman was most excellent. Miss Birch gave a song cycle, "Four Songs of the Hills," that was charming and later sang three delightful numbers. The entertainment was very largely attended and the young ladies were warmly complimented upon their numbers.

"DANDROCIDE"

is a scalp medicine, not merely a hair beautifier. It rids the scalp of that dangerous hair enemy, dandruff, and allows nature to serve its purpose unhampered. Your own specialist will endorse the properties in "Dandrocide."

The many hair tonics fool you into softening the hair, but shamefully neglect the great evil, dandruff.

You won't get rid of dandruff, until you use "Dandrocide." It is lasting in its benefits, and is best in its results when economically applied. One bottle will heal the scalp, and start a rejuvenating growth of hair.

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, June 4, 1867.—This has been a regular summer day and for a wonder no rain has fallen during the past twelve hours.

Base Ball.—The members or those wishing to join the West Side Base Ball Club, will meet at the store of Bliss & Hayner (over Wright & Hunt's) this Tuesday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock, sharp, for the purpose of organizing.

That Hat.—The Milwaukee Sentinel calls the Jackson who was here begging for the south, "The Knight of the Unquenchable Hat." We are informed that while he sojourned in this

The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had, told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ of the human system as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach is utterly indifferent to, until discovered the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

city, he was "The Knight of the Unquenchable Thirst," or in other words he manifested a disposition to take his share of the corn for the destitute, in a liquid form. He preferred that way, as it was more condensed and saved freight, don't you see?

Corn.—This has been an excellent corn day, and we hear of farmers in several sections replanting fields where the seed rotted in the ground. It is now so late that some risk will be incurred with dent, unless the fall should be so exceedingly favorable, and the earlier varieties must be substituted for seed in replanting. There is considerable complaint of rotting, but we still think the failure is not so general and widespread as some of the croakers would have us believe. The eight rowed sorts are all certain to get ripe if planted immediately.

A Base Wretch.—The Fenian General Massey, who turned Queen's evidence at the late Dublin trials, seems to have combined more of cowardice, meanness and treachery than any man since Judas Iscariot. Having deserted the British Army, he entered the Confederate service as a private, and finally became a Colonel of a Texas regiment. After the war he failed in business as a commercial drummer, and having engaged in the Fenian enterprise, raised a large amount of money for the cause went with it to Ireland. He was there apprehended as a Fenian and a rebel, and when arrested swooned away from sheer terror, but recovered in time to sell his soul and the lives of his comrades for British gold.

His Limit.

Little Forest had just started to school. His father was accosted on his way home one evening by a neighbor, who said: "So your little boy is a great fighter at school?" On arriving home the father summoned the boy at once. "Forest, is it so that you fight with the boys at school?" "O, well, I fight everything to the fourth grade!"

Inducement to Attend Church. A clergyman in a London suburb has promised to entertain his congregation next winter by reading novels to them, with musical interludes.

Or Almost Always.

It's a queer thing, but it doesn't matter how lazy a man may be, he is always able to find some soft-hearted, hard-working woman who is willing to marry him.

WHILE ROYAL VELVET FINISH costs a little more than some other finishes, the difference in price is so little and the difference in quality so great that the trifling difference in price is not worthy of consideration. The cheaper stains lose their luster, become sticky in warm weather and cause general dissatisfaction. ROYAL VELVET FINISH retains indefinitely its color and luster.

Arthur I. Vorvys of Cincinnati, who has been announced as the Taff leader in the fight against Senator Foraker to secure the endorsement of the Ohio state convention for Secretary of War Taff's presidential nomination, is one of the best-known republican leaders in the Buckeye state. Mr. Vorvys is at present insurance commissioner of Ohio, an appointment which, it is safe to say, he would not have received if Senator Foraker had opposed the measure. He is noted as a clean politician and has been active in introducing reforms into his department since his accession to office. He has been leaped into national prominence by his selection as the Taff leader. He was approved by President Roosevelt.

HAYWOOD TRIAL BEGUN IN IDAHO

Complete Jury Secured
--Haywood In Court,
But Says He Is Entirely Well
Again.

The wearisome work of jury selection ended quickly and unexpectedly Monday morning. Alfred Eoff, the first talesman examined, was declared qualified after strong and repeated protests from the defense. Eoff said he had an opinion; that he would carry his opinion into the trial; that he could not presume the defendant innocent, and that he would not like to be tried himself by a man who had any opinion, but despite these conditions of his mind he thought that if sworn as a juror he could fairly try the case according to the law and evidence. Four challenges for cause against him failed, but the minute he was passed the defense expended its tenth and last challenge to get rid of him.

O. V. Sebern, the next talesman called, proved the last one needed. When a resident of Wyoming Sebern served as a member of the Tom Horn jury, and the defense went into the question quite thoroughly, but in the end the talesman qualified in a manner satisfactory to both sides.

Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock James H. Hawley for the state will address the court with the state's opening statement. He has prepared no manuscript, and said that he would be very brief.

What the State Will Charge.

Broadly speaking, the state will charge that Haywood, conspiring with Moyer, Pettibone, and Simpkins and others of the alleged "inner circle" of the Western Federation of Miners, plotted a campaign of terrorism that had for its purpose the removal by assassination of those opposed to the organization, and the retention and increase of control and power within the organization. It will allege that the explosion at the Victorville mine, the blowing up of the Independence depot, the murder of Light Gregory, a detective of Denver, the murder of Arthur Collins of Telluride, the alleged blowing up of Fred Bradley of San Francisco, and the alleged attempts on the lives of former Gov. Peabody and Judges Gabbert and Godard of Colorado were all acts in a single great conspiracy to which the murder of Gov. Steunenberg was incidental. It will be charged that Haywood was the genius of and the strength behind the great plot, and that Steunenberg was added to the list because of his part during the labor troubles in north Idaho.

It will be alleged that Haywood and his associates, standing and working in the background, planned the long list of crimes and sent Harry Orchard and Steve Adams forth as hired executioners.

Orchard to Testify.

The state's testimony will begin with a rehearsal of the Caldwell tragedy in which Frank Steunenberg was blown to death by a bomb on the night of December 30, 1905, and then the presence at Caldwell of Harry Orchard and John L. Simpkins, a member of the executive board of the Western Federation of Miners, will be shown. After that Harry Orchard, who actually murdered Steunenberg, will be connected with the scene and crime, and then Orchard will be called to the stand to retell the confession which it is alleged he made to Detective McParland. After that will come the state's effort to corroborate the Orchard story and to clinch by other testimony the general part of the Western Federation of Miners and the particular part of William D. Haywood alleged in connection with the murder of Frank Steunenberg.

Attorneys for the prosecution express satisfaction with the jury, but counsel for Haywood, while believing the jurors honest of purpose, call attention to the fact that none of them has any natural kinship to labor organizations.

TO TESTIFY ABOUT KAYE LINCOLN MEN ARE SUMMONED "BEFORE THE GRAND JURY."

Police There Scoff at Story of Minister Who Had Outfit for Making Coins.

Lincoln, Ill., June 4.—New developments occurred Monday in the case of Rev. James R. Kaye, under investigation for having molds of United States coins. A sensational hearing before the federal grand jury in Springfield is in prospect. Acting upon discoveries made here Saturday by Capt. Porter of the secret service bureau of Chicago, District Attorney Northcott Monday caused to be issued a number of subpoenas summoning prominent citizens before the grand jury. They are to tell what they know of the actions of Mr. Kaye, former pastor of the Presbyterian church in this city, who now lives in Oak Park.

United States Marshal Townsend served the papers which make it necessary for friends and neighbors of Mr. Kaye to go before the grand jury on Friday, June 14. Included in the list of witnesses cited are men prominent in business and church circles.

The local police laugh at the idea that the preacher manufactured the molds, they have discovered for the purpose of making medals for Sunday school children. Capt. Madigan, who first made the discovery of the coin outfit in the basement of Mr. Kaye's former home, says the dies he found are surely for molding half-dollars and quarters. An affair for striking off paper money, which Capt. Porter found in an outhouse at the old Kaye residence, is a rubber plate attached to a wooden base.

The police say they have been informed that a local merchant has in his possession a number of counterfeit half-dollars which were passed on him some time ago. This is being investigated.

RUSSIA'S ATTITUDE AT HAGUE MEETING

M. DE MARTENS DRAWING UP A TENTATIVE PROGRAM.

NO DESIRE TO DICTATE

Opposed to Discussing Limitation of Armaments—Wants Contraband and Rights of Neutral Powers Defined.

St. Petersburg, June 4.—Russia's attitude and line of action before The Hague conference are now beginning to take shape at a series of conferences between M. Nelidoff, first member of the Russian delegation, his associates and technical advisers, and officials of the foreign office.

A series of propositions, mainly drafted by M. De Martens, the celebrated Russian expert on international law and second member of the delegation, furnishing a basis of discussion for the various points of the Russian program, have been considered and tentatively adopted. Whether these will be presented to the conference depends largely on the attitude of other delegations. Russia having no desire to dictate the course which the discussions shall take, and wishing to give precedence to the proposals of other powers whenever these are found satisfactory. Nevertheless Russia has now very definitely shaped her course on the various important questions to be presented.

As to Armament Limitation.

In regard to the limitation of armaments, Russia maintains the positions laid down in its note of March 16, 1905, and, with Austria and Germany, is frankly opposed to any discussion of this subject, which it still feels can lead to no useful result. In drawing up its program and eliminating this and other questions from the discussion, Russia's highest diplomatic officials maintain that they were guided principally by the desire to omit all subjects which might lead to acute disagreements and introduce into a conference whose aim is peace a bitter struggle of a political nature. From this point of view they regret deeply the international difficulties raised by an insistence on a discussion to which three of the leading continental powers are unqualifiedly opposed and which threatens completely to change the character which the conference should bear.

Negotiations towards a modus vivendi are still in progress, however, and the Russian authorities have not abandoned hope of an eleventh hour agreement which will enable the question to be disposed of before the conference, amicably and without bitterness.

Opened to Other Powers.

In its plans for the conference the Russian government lays chief weight on the development of the scope and machinery of The Hague tribunal and the international commissions of investigation established by the first conference. Its first efforts have been directed towards opening the doors of The Hague convention to non-signatory powers. These efforts have already been crowned with success and one after another the republics of Central and South America have signified their adherence to its provisions for the peaceful settlement of international disputes.

Russia also regards it as highly desirable that the questions of maritime war and the rights and obligations of neutrals, now so important after the Russo-Japanese war, should be systematized. The Russian program provides for the discussion of the principal problems which arose during the recent war.

Wants to Define Contraband.

Of first importance in this department the Russian government considers the question of contraband, at present a situation of utter chaos, with every belligerent defining after the outbreak of hostilities what it is pleased to call confiscatable property. The difficulty of adjusting the English and continental views on conditional contraband, such as coal, machinery, horses, etc., is realized, but it is hoped by Russia that the conference can elaborate a convention enumerating what articles shall be considered contraband and under what conditions, and providing international regulations for prize court procedure, perhaps even an international prize court of highest instance.

A corollary question, which Russia hopes will also result in international regulation, concerns the obligations of neutrals in supplying belligerents with coal and similar quasi munitions of war. This question was of acute interest during the Russo-Japanese war. Definite rules concerning the right of asylum in neutral ports are also desired.
